Summary of discussion

A motion was voted to use the money in the Potts fund to cover the costs of the Groundbreaker newsletter for this year for up to $750.

The credit line for travel expenses was set to $2,000.

A motion was voted for the advisory council to present the University with a strategic plan before March 2001. Chip Carlson, Laurence Favalora, Don Greenland, Steven Hallman, and Don Beach volunteered to be on the executive committee.

The advisory council nominated and voted the following new members:

H. "Chip" Carlson III	Amos Warner
Jack Blicht	Lee Smith
Richard Nelson	Chuck Penn
Steven Hallman	Ray Chadderton
John Schween

Further nominations should be sent to the Director of the ULM School of Construction, who will submit the names to the advisory council.

The next advisory council will take place in March, 2001.

Charles Poole, President IAC

Dr. Keith Parker, Interim Director
