

ULM Counseling Programs

College of Health and Pharmaceutical Sciences

Master's Degree in Counseling with a School Counseling Concentration

- Predominantly Online Program
- Degree allows graduates to pursue LPC licensure
- CACREP and CAEP accredited

- Help students in elementary and secondary schools in order to help them understand and deal with social, behavioral, and personal problems.
- Emphasize preventive and developmental counseling to enhance students' personal, social, and academic growth and to provide students with the life skills needed to deal with problems before they worsen.
- Provide special services, including alcohol and drug prevention programs, academic counseling, career guidance, and conflict resolution classes.
- Interact with students individually, in small groups, or as an entire class.
- Consult and collaborate with parents, teachers, school administrators, school psychologists, medical professionals, and social workers to develop and implement strategies to help students succeed.

Discover ULM
University of Louisiana at Monroe

M.S. Counseling Programs
Strauss 371 318-342-1246
Dr. Sutton sutton@ulm.edu

ULM Community Counseling Center
Strauss 284 318-342-1264

www.ulm.edu/counseling