

Study Abroad Scholarships

In order to be considered for Honors scholarships to go abroad you must follow the following guidelines:

- Be at least a first semester junior
- Have a minimum 3.50 GPA
- Have completed the Honors Core
- Have completed 12 hours of foreign languages
- Be on track for Honors in the University distinction

Other considerations

The ULM Honors Program will give priority to the following students:

- Those who have shown commitment to the Program both academically and in extra curricular activities
- Those who have not received any assistance for Study Abroad in the past
- Those who have taken at least one hour of Honors Project

For further information please contact the Honors Program Director.