

ULM Alumni Association

The Alumni Association was organized in 1952 for the benefit of Northeast Louisiana State College. The first president of the Alumni Association was Mr. Pascal Norris of Monroe. In 1999 the name of the institution was changed to The University of Louisiana Monroe and the organization became known as the ULM Alumni Association.

In the Fall of 1953, the first alumni newsletter was published under the name of "Alumni News". In 1982 the "Alumni News" was renamed "Drumbeat." In November 2006, "Drumbeat" was renamed "The ULM Magazine."

ULM alumni are located worldwide. The first alumni chapter, Caddo-Bossier, was formed in 1960. Since that time domestic, international and academic chapters have followed. Today the Alumni Association draws its membership from over 54,000 graduates of ULM.
