

University of Louisiana at Monroe

Dr. Jason Rinehart, newly appointed Director of Orchestras, is in high demand across the United States as an adjudicator, educator and clinician. He has studied conducting with Robert Olson, Paul Phillips, David Effron, and Gunther Schuller. He has a wide range of repertoire including works from the Baroque to several world premiers. Dr. Rinehart's ensembles have received critical acclaim and won many awards at National competitions, including being named "Most Entertaining" two years in a row at the U.S. Open.

Christopher Thompson, Professor of Violin, is a Senior Fulbright Scholar and has performed to acclaim in the U.S., Europe and the Far East. He has premiered works written for him by Eric Ewazen and Dinos Constantinides. Thompson studied violin with Margaret Pardee, Dinos Constantinides and Charles Castleman.

Mark McCleery, Artist Teacher of Cello, serves as Principal Cellist for the Monroe Symphony Orchestra. Mr. McCleery is an active soloist and recitalist and also performs with Trio de Ceard, the resident faculty piano trio.

announces...

Graduate String Assistantships

Waiver of tuition (including out-of-state when applicable) plus a $5000 stipend.

Undergraduate String Studies

Talent-based scholarships $800-$2500 renewable annually.

Auditions: February 8, 2008 and February 25, 2008 on the ULM campus.

For further information contact:

Dr. Jason Rinehart

318-342-1580 • rinehart@ulm.edu

Dr. Christopher Thompson

318-342-1590 • thompson@ulm.edu

DEGREES:

Undergraduate

Music Performance

Music Education

Music Theory/Composition

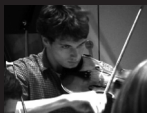

Graduate

Master of Music in Performance

Master of Music Education

Master of Music in Theory/Composition

www.ulm.edu/music

V&P
School of Visual and Performing Arts