Monroe is the largest city in northeast Louisiana. With year-round outdoor recreation, a rich Louisiana culture, and a growing job market for ULM graduates, there’s no doubt #thebestisonthebayou.

Since 1931, The University of Louisiana Monroe has been the setting of students in pursuit of excellence. Its campus spans over 200 acres of pecan groves, green fields, and the beautiful Bayou DeSiard. From its inception, ULM has sought to serve the educational needs and desires of all people. The University prides itself on continually expanding boundaries through innovation and inclusion, and is well positioned to continue a strong tradition of greatness in the future.

With a vision to be recognized among the top 200 universities in the nation for excellence, research, and innovation, with an emphasis on the health sciences, it is easy to see why it is an excellent time to be a Warhawk.

Your dream job starts with your dream major. Study, learn, and research under passionate professors in small classroom settings.
