3) Course Equivalencies

-On FlightPath main page, click on “transfer credit equivalency search” and find school. ULM equivalents are listed. If the course is not a direct equivalent, it is given a level number of 1, 2, 3, or 4, followed by XXX. This means that this is a viable university-level course that may or may not be used on a degree plan, per approval of the department. For example, in many cases these courses may be used as electives.

-To review course descriptions for courses that do not have direct equivalencies defined in the Transfer Credit Equivalency Search in FlightPath, please go to <http://www.collegesource.org/>

6) Online Attendance Policy (ULM 2018-19 Undergraduate Catalog)

http://catalog.ulm.edu/content.php?catoid=20&navoid=2479#Online Attendance Policy

The University of Louisiana Monroe (ULM) believes that students must attend class if they are to be well prepared for the workplace. Online courses are no different from traditional classroom courses in this regard. Online students are subject to the same attendance policy and procedures as traditional students. However, participation is defined in a different manner.

Student attendance in online courses is defined as active participation in the course as described in the individual course syllabus. Online courses will, at a minimum, have weekly mechanisms for student participation no more frequently than daily, which can be documented by any or all of the following methods:

- Completion of tests or quizzes
- Discussion forums
- Submission/completion of assignments
- Communication with the instructor
- Or other course participation

Having these weekly mechanisms in place requires that students attend class each week or as specified in the syllabus. Students are required to log in to each online course by the second day during the week in which the course officially begins, or the day enrolled during late registration to complete the initial introductory postings required in the course. Students must log in at least one additional day during the first week of the course. Students must log in on two separate days each subsequent week of the course to meet attendance requirements or as specified in the syllabus. As a component of attendance email announcements and course news forum(s) should be checked frequently (daily is recommended). The student is solely responsible for checking updates related to the course.

Note: Nonattendance may affect financial aid. If a student fails to meet these attendance requirements for one week of the course, he or she will be given an absence for that week. Students are required attendance of at least 75% in a course as stated in the Student Policy Manual. If a student fails to meet the attendance requirements, he or she may be recommended for withdrawal from the course. In the case of an anticipated absence, such as military deployment, a student should contact the instructor in advance and make arrangements to complete the required assignments. In case of an emergency (illness/accident or death in family), a student should contact the instructor as soon as possible providing documentation supporting the need for any late submission of a graded event.

7) Placement Tests for Students

Online students needing to take a placement test for Math or English do not have to come to ULM to do so. They may contact ULM Admissions to get information about another test center. The student should contact the other test center to inquire about registration procedures, test dates, and test fees. When reporting to take the test, the student should request that the test results be sent to ULM via fax (318-342-5430) or email (testing@ulm.edu).

Placement test information for developmental courses can be found on the ULM testing website. Students register for the test online. <http://www.ulm.edu/testingcenter/placement.html>

8) Application for Graduation

Students who are being advised into their last term of coursework and who plan to graduate at the end of that term must submit an online application for graduation through Banner. The deadlines for submission of the application, along with instructions for doing so are found on the Registrar's Office website at www.ulm.edu/registrar
