DISCUSSION TOPICS
Athletics and Compliance: (Ashleigh Simmons) Housing for athletes in Warhawk Village is now scheduled to open this weekend pending the potential hurricane landfall and its impacts. The APR review and internal audit are in progress. Once complete it will be brought to the Committee for review. The next SAC meeting is October 14th at 6 PM on the patio of Bayou Pointe. The guest speaker is Dr. Ron Berry. Tennis has a home tournament scheduled for this weekend. FAR/Academic Integrity and Compliance Subcommittee: (M. Adams) 3 students have applied for the Sunbelt post graduate award. AIC members will schedule a time to attend an outdoor practice. Equity and Student-Athlete Well-being: (L. Hersey) Please see new business area. Governance: (K. Leppert/L. Nickelson) No report. Academics: (B. Michaelides/A. Malta) Deadline for athletes to meet with counselors and make plans to drop is October 20. Classes must be dropped no later than October 27th. Students First alerts are going out and coming in to help with student success. Advising will be starting soon. New Business: L. Hersey and M. Adams met with President Berry. Goal of expanding knowledge of University Deans regarding the UAAAC. He has people in mind to fill the open positions on the committee and will be reaching out to new members. Key right now is working with athletes to improve mental health and come up with a plan to help make connections between athletes and resources on campus. Important to help coaches and counselors facilitate access to resources and make a plan to help athletes adapt. New course structure is adding to their stress levels. L. Hersey was asked to serve another year. Look at restructuring the Equity and Student Athlete well being subcommittee. M. Adams, L. Nickelson and A. Simmons will serve on this committee as well. The next meeting is scheduled for Nov. 10th. We will continue to use the zoom platform. Motion to adjourn made by M. McKinnie Second: L. Nickelson
