Course Description

This graduate-level course immerses students in the realm of Expressive Art Therapy, encompassing diverse populations and settings. It delves into the rich history, theories, and ethical considerations that underlie art therapy, equipping students with the skills to harness the therapeutic potential of art.

Further Description

This graduate-level course offers an immersive exploration of Expressive Art Therapy, a dynamic and transformative field that bridges artistic creativity and therapeutic healing. With a tailored focus on diverse client populations and counseling settings, this program delves into the underlying theories, creative techniques, and ethical considerations that underpin expressive art therapy. Students will develop the practical skills to employ art as a powerful therapeutic modality, fostering self-expression, personal growth, and emotional well-being in clients.

Key topics include the use of a wide range of art materials and techniques and their adaptability to different age groups, encompassing children, adolescents, adults, and the elderly. The course places a strong emphasis on creating a safe and inclusive environment for art therapy, where students actively engage in experiential art therapy activities, hands-on creative processes, and group sharing sessions, thus fostering self-discovery, emotional expression, and personal growth.

Prerequisites – None

Commitment to Diversity and Accommodations

The Counseling Program at ULM is committed to advancing diversity, equity, and inclusion throughout the curriculum and clinical experience. We invite diversity and foster a culture of inclusion that supports multiple dimensions of culture that includes race, ethnicity, gender identity, sexual orientation, religious affiliation, spirituality, nationality, regionality, disability, and beyond.

Within the Counseling Program, we attempt to foster and maintain a safe environment of respect and inclusion for faculty, staff, students, and members of the communities we serve. We educate our faculty and students to be social justice advocates for marginalized populations and direct our curriculum to reflect the diversity of our communities and elevate awareness.

The Counseling Program is committed to building and retaining a faculty, staff, and student body that reflects these cultural values and respects the dignity of all persons.

The Counseling Program is committed to making reasonable efforts to assist individuals with disabilities in their efforts to avail themselves of services and programs offered by ULM. To this end, ULM will provide reasonable accommodations for persons with documented qualifying disabilities. Students who have a disability and feel they need accommodations in the course must present a letter to the instructor from the Self-Development, Counseling, and Special Accommodations Center at ULM indicating the existence of a disability and the suggested accommodations. Students who need accommodations because of a known or suspected disability should contact the Director for Disabled Student Services at 318-342-5220 or click here for the Self-Development, Counseling, and Special Accommodations Center website. ULM's official accommodations guidelines and policies are found here.

Special circumstances. Students who encounter any unforeseen circumstances during the semester that may affect their performance (e.g., physical, or mental illness, family emergency) must let their instructor know within seven (7) days so possible accommodations can be discussed or alternative arrangements made. Please note that accommodations are not retroactive, so it is important to request them in a timely manner.

Class Policies and Procedures

Required Textbook

None. Students will be using e-textbooks and journal articles available at the ULM Library.

Secret tip – The library allows you to download a certain number of pages of the book as a pdf. You might want to download parts of the book with art therapy exercises for future reference.

Required Materials

- Hardcover sketchbook 9 x 12 or 11x14. It can be either spiral bound or book bound. If you choose a book bound, be sure it will lay flat. Choose a book that has high quality paper
- Altoid tin
- Colored pencils/markers/crayons
- Simple watercolor set with brushes
- Tacky glue
- Scissors

- Random pieces of fabric, newspapers, magazines, yarn/embroidery floss, other small embellishments, tissue paper, scrapbook paper, paper from old books, etc.

Technology for the Class

All courses in the Counseling Program are 100% online. Students will need a computer, internet access, and access to their myULM account that will give them access to Banner, Canvas, the bookstore, and Degree Works. Students should also have access to a Zoom account for synchronous meetings and to complete any class projects that are recorded.

View Canvas regularly for supplemental materials, additional handouts, required readings, and all class lessons. Students are responsible for checking the site each week, for printing any materials necessary for class preparation, and for all content on this website.

Instructional Methods

The primary methods of instruction for this course comes from an asynchronous format that utilizes weekly recorded lectures, recorded clinical assessment demonstrations, and assigned readings. Students are required to engage in a discussion board through asynchronous or synchronous formats. Asynchronously, students create recorded video discussion posts individually or in groups using Flipgrid and provide written feedback to others' posts. Synchronously, students can participate in a live discussion board held weekly, where they can interact with the professor and other students over Zoom.

Course Objectives

Objectives

This course is designed to enable the student to:

A. Explore various modalities of artistic expression

B. Experience the therapeutic effects of artistic expression within the context of a learning community

C. Demonstrate understanding and use of appropriate therapeutic responses to creative work

D. Pursue personal, professional, and artistic development through class experiences (synchronous) and (asynchronous) assignments

E. gain awareness of ethical issues and professional standards for using the expressive arts in therapy

Course Topics

The role of the art therapist

Ethical considerations in art therapy

Introduction to various art materials (e.g., drawing, painting, collage, nature)

Using expressive art techniques in individual and group therapy with specific populations

Using art therapy in schools, clinical, and other settings

Components:

1. One part of the course will be asynchronous on Canvas with readings and assignments.
2. There will also be a synchronous component over Zoom on 5/1 from 5-7 pm CST. There is an optional class meeting during Week 7 on 2/28.

Student Performance Evaluation: Criteria and Procedures

1. Weekly Course Journal (Ongoing Reflection) – (20 pts x 15 reflections = 300pts)

Students will maintain a weekly course journal, engaging in a continuous process of reflection, personal insights, and artistic discoveries throughout the course.

2. Reading & Lecture Reflection Quizzes (20 pts x 4 quizzes= 200pts)

Students will participate in short answer reflection quizzes after each reading assignment and lecture. These assessments are designed to deepen students' understanding and encourage thoughtful responses, fostering a connection between theory and practice in expressive art therapy.

3. Expressive Art Techniques Assignments (Hands-On Art Exploration) (250pts)

Students will actively engage in a series of expressive art techniques activities, allowing experimentation with various art materials and methodologies.

4. Art Project with Selected Population (Real-World Application) (150pts)

Students will undertake an art project wherein they design and lead an art activity tailored to a chosen population - children, adolescents, adults, or the elderly. This assignment allows students to put their knowledge into practice.

5. Group Participation in Synchronous Class (Active Engagement) (100pts)

Students will actively participate in a synchronous class where they share their final art projects.

Evaluation and Grade Assignment

Grades will be assigned as follows:

A = 100-90%

B = 89 – 80%

C = 79 –70%

D = 69 – 60%

F = 59-0%

Other Policies and Procedures

Attendance Policy : This is an online class so Moodle assignments are required weekly and students are required to check their ULM e-mails daily.

Make-up Policy: There will be no make-up assignments. No exceptions will be made without proof of an emergency that falls within the university excused absence guidelines (<http://bit.ly/1LbMV0c>)

Academic Integrity: Academic Integrity: Faculty and students must observe the ULM published policy on Academic Dishonesty. Please be advised that the university's policy regarding academic honesty is rigorously followed throughout this semester in this class. No cheating will be allowed, and it will be reported. All papers will be checked for plagiarism.

Course Evaluation Policy: At a minimum, students are expected to complete the online course evaluation. Students are strongly encouraged to provide feedback to the instructor about their experience in class and let the instructor know if they need extra support or alternative learning activities.

Student Services: Information about ULM student services, such as Student Success Center (www.ulm.edu/studentsuccess/), Counseling Center (www.ulm.edu/counselingcenter/), Special Needs (www.ulm.edu/counselingcenter/special.htm), and Student Health Services, is available at the following Student Services website www.ulm.edu/studentaffairs/.

Emergency Procedures: (N/A for online courses.)

Discipline/Course Specific Policies: Humor, language, or stories that are offensive, or suggest disrespectful ethnic, racial, gender, religious, or national origin-related biases will not be tolerated. A diverse student body is expected and encouraged in this course. One of the tenets of this course will be an atmosphere of respect and feeling at ease while contributing to the class. Disagreements in opinions are part of the academic endeavor; however, such disagreements must be conducted in civility without sarcasm. I take disrespectful behavior very seriously and thus encourage every student to extend the same respect they wish to receive to everyone else.

Grading and emailing: Instructor will have assignments graded within 7 days after the due date has passed. Instructor will respond to emails within 48 ULM operating business hours. If 48 hours have passed with no respond, respectfully email instructor again.

Late Policy: No assignments will be accepted after the last day of class. Otherwise, late papers may be accepted at the discretion of the professor with a penalty of 10% decrease in grade per day.

Student Services : The University of Louisiana at Monroe strives to serve students with special needs through compliance with Sections 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act. These laws mandate that postsecondary institutions provide equal access to programs and services for students with disabilities without creating changes to the essential elements of the curriculum. While students with special needs are expected to meet our institution's academic standards, they are given the opportunity to fulfill learner outcomes in alternative ways. Examples of accommodations may include, but are not limited to, testing accommodations (oral testing, extended time for exams), interpreters, relocation of inaccessible classrooms, permission to audiotape lectures, note-taking assistance, and course substitutions.
