PERMISSION TO BE PHOTOGRAPHED

Participants in the KDSO Nursing Summer Boot Camp will be photographed/videoed while engaged in camp activities. These photographs/videos will be used in the slide show during the Awards Ceremony as well as ULM social media, newspaper publications, and for the advertisement of future boot camp events in print and on the internet.

Yes, I understand, agree, and consent that my son/daughter may be included in any and all interviews, photographs, and/or videos.

Please complete the attached Permission to Publish Authorization Form.

No, I do not consent that my son/daughter be included in any interviews, photographs, and/or videos.

ON CAMPUS HOUSING

Prepaid on-campus accommodations for camp participants only will be available Tuesday night through Thursday night. Check in will be Monday afternoon between 5 and 7 pm and check out Friday afternoon following the Awards Ceremony.

Because Nursing Boot Camp ends at 5 p.m. each day, students staying overnight are responsible for themselves after hours. Students must abide by the code of conduct.

Students are responsible for their own dinner and for bringing their own linens and toiletries. Nursing Boot Camp staff will not be on-site in the Residential Halls, but each floor will have an ULM Residential Assistant on-site. Floors are separated by gender. No guests of students may stay overnight in a Residential Hall.

What To Bring:

- Sheets for XL twin bed (if you cannot find XL sheets, you can use two standard twin flat sheets or a sleeping bag)
- Blanket
- Pillow & Pillowcase
- Bath towels, hand towel, & washcloth
- Personal toiletries (shampoo, soap, etc.)
- Alarm clock (if not using one on your phone)
- Phone charger

I request _____ to be my roommate.

I request private occupancy.

I do not have a preference.

MEALS

Breakfast will be provided each morning and snacks and water throughout the day. Students will be provided lunch cards for on campus at the HUB. Campers may bring their lunch. Overnight students are responsible for their own dinner. Discounted camp meal plans are available.
