OATH OF A PHARMACIST

*I promise to devote myself to a lifetime of service to others through the profession of pharmacy. In fulfilling this vow:
I will consider the welfare of humanity and relief of suffering my primary concerns.
I will treat all patients with dignity and respect and will not discriminate against any patient.
I will apply my knowledge, experience, and skills to the best of my ability to assure optimal outcomes for all patients.
I will respect and protect all personal and health information entrusted to me.
I will accept the responsibility to improve my professional knowledge, expertise, and self-awareness.
I will hold myself and my colleagues to the highest principles of our profession's moral, ethical and legal conduct.
I will embrace and advocate changes that improve patient care.
I will utilize my knowledge, skills, experiences, and values to prepare the next generation of pharmacists.
I take these vows voluntarily with the full realization of the responsibility with which I am entrusted by the public.*

COLLEGE OF PHARMACY AWARDS

Merck and Company Awards For Excellence in the Basic Sciences

Awards presented to three graduating seniors with outstanding achievement in Medicinal Chemistry, Pharmaceutics and Pharmacology, respectively.

The Albert P. Lauve Memorial Award

This award is given in memory of Albert P. Lauve, the "Father of Hospital Pharmacy in the State of Louisiana." Mr. Lauve was Chief Pharmacist at Charity Hospital in New Orleans from 1928 to 1946, and at Mercy Hospital in New Orleans from 1946 until his retirement in 1965. His pioneering efforts in many aspects of hospital pharmacy practice were outstanding; However, his greatest achievements were in the development of formulations and procedures for manufacturing intravenous solutions in the hospital pharmacy. Mr. Lauve was a charter member of the American Society of Health-System Pharmacists and in 1964 was honored by the ASHP with their highest award, the Harvey A.K. Whitney Lecture Award. Mr. Lauve died in January of 1969 at the age of 77. This memorial award is presented to a graduating senior of good moral character with an overall GPA of 2.5 or better, who has made the highest achievement in hospital pharmacy-related courses and who has achieved above average performance in the hospital setting.

Viartis Pharmaceuticals Excellence in Pharmacy Award

With this award, Viartis desires to recognize high academic achievement and professional motivation of a graduate in a tangible and professionally meaningful manner. This annual award is presented to a student who has demonstrated superior proficiency in the provision of drug information services, has demonstrated professional motivation, and is pursuing or has been accepted into a post-entry level residency program and is in the top 25% of his/her graduating class.

The American Pharmacists Association Senior Recognition Certificate

An annual award presented to a graduating student member for his/her outstanding contribution to the local Academy of Students of Pharmacy chapter. APhA will nationally recognize all the honored students through its publication, the Journal of the American Pharmacists Association.

Award of Excellence in Clinical Communication

An annual award presented to a graduating senior in the top 25% of his/her class, and who has demonstrated superior verbal and written clinical communication skills.

USPHSP Excellence in Public Health Pharmacy Award

This award was established to recognize pharmacy students who make significant contributions to public health. This includes advancing the objectives of Healthy People 2020, the National Prevention Strategy, the Surgeon Generals' initiatives, and the pharmacy profession.

The Natural Medicine Comprehensive Database Recognition Award
