

Emily Ensminger Casteel, M.S., CCC-SLP

casteel@ulm.edu

EDUCATION

UNIVERSITY OF LOUISIANA AT LAFAYETTE
Masters of Science in Speech-Language Pathology, May 2009

LOUISIANA STATE UNIVERSITY
Bachelor of Arts in Communication Disorders, May 2007

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Health Pro Heritage at The Guest House Nursing & Rehabilitation, West Monroe, LA
Speech-Language Pathologist, MS, CCC/SLP April 2016- present

- Provide speech, language, cognitive, dysphagia, and voice assessment and intervention services in the nursing home setting for adults with neurological disease (including dementia, CVA, brain injury, PD), oropharyngeal and esophageal dysphagia, and respiratory compromise.
- Participate in pt and family education sessions and care plan conferences, as well as consult and collaborate with other disciplines involved in the patients' care.
- VitalStim certified

University of Louisiana at Monroe, Monroe, LA
Adjunct Speech-Language Pathologist Clinical Supervisor, MS, CCC/SLP August 2018-present

- Provide supervision and guidance to graduate SLP clinicians for speech, language, and literacy intervention services in the clinic setting for pediatrics with communication and language disorders.

Affinity Health Management Center, Monroe, LA
PRN Speech-Language Pathologist, MS, CCC/SLP October 2016- December 2019

- Provide speech, language, and literacy intervention services in the outpatient setting for pediatrics with communication and language disorders. Also provide cognitive, dysphasia, and voice intervention services to adults.

Siskin Hospital for Physical Rehabilitation, Chattanooga, TN
Speech-Language Pathologist, MS, CCC/SLP September 2010-March 2016

- Provided speech, language, cognitive, dysphagia, and voice assessment and intervention services in the inpatient and outpatient rehabilitation setting for adolescents and adults with neurological disease (CVA, brain injury, TBI, dementia, PD, Guillain Barre, ALS), oropharyngeal and esophageal dysphagia (including dysphagia s/p cervical spinal surgery and head & neck cancer), respiratory compromise, tracheostomy, and laryngectomy.
- Performed MBSS and FEES procedures for instrumental assessments of swallowing function.

- Participated in bi-weekly staffing meetings, pt and family education sessions, as well as consulted and collaborated with other disciplines involved in the patients' care.
- Coordinator of Better Hearing and Speech Month.
- Certified Brain Injury Specialist, MBS competency, Licensed FEES endoscopist, VitalStim certified.

Our Lady of Lourdes Regional Medical Center, Lafayette, LA
Speech-Language Pathologist, MS, CFY/SLP

June 2009-August 2010

- Provided speech, language, cognitive, dysphagia, and voice assessment and intervention services in the acute and inpatient rehabilitation settings for adolescents and adults with neurological disease (CVA, brain injury, TBI, dementia, ALS, PD), respiratory compromise, tracheostomy, laryngectomy, and oropharyngeal and esophageal dysphagia.
- Performed MBSS procedures to assess oropharyngeal and esophageal dysphagia.
- Participated in weekly staffing meetings as well as collaborated and consulted with other disciplines involved in the patients' care.

Ridge Elementary School, Duson, LA
Speech-Language Pathologist Student Clinician

January 2009-May 2009

- Provided speech and language assessment and intervention services for pre-school and elementary children exhibiting communication disorders including articulation, phonological, language, and fluency disorders.
- Participated in Individualized Educational Program (IEP) planning meetings.

Acadiana Brain Injury Center, Youngsville, LA
Speech-Language Pathologist Student Clinician

August 2008- Dec. 2008

- Provided speech and language assessment and intervention services for adults with traumatic brain injury in the clinical and community settings.

University of Louisiana at Lafayette Speech-Language and Hearing Clinic, Lafayette, LA
Speech-Language Pathologist Student Clinician

August 2007-May 2009

- Provided speech and language diagnostic and intervention services for children and adults exhibiting communication disorders, including articulation, literacy, language, and aphasia.
- Attended monthly ULL aphasia support group meetings with adult clients.

University of Louisiana at Lafayette Communication Disorders Department, Lafayette, LA
Graduate Assistantship

August 2007-May 2009

- Provided assistance to department of communication disorders, including clinic clerical work and professor assistant duties.

Louisiana State University Preschool Clinic, Baton Rouge, LA
Speech- Language Student Clinician

January 2007-May 2007

- Administered language and play based evaluations and provided intervention services for children exhibiting language disorders.

The Baton Rouge Speech and Hearing Foundation, Baton Rouge, LA
Speech-Language Pathologist Assistant

August 2006-Jan. 2007

- Provided assistance to a certified SLP treating pre-school students exhibiting developmental speech delays, language impairments, autism, and Down Syndrome during reading, snack, art, recess, and play-based activities.

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA) certified member

Louisiana Board of Examiners of Speech- Language Pathology (LBESPA) certified member

REFERENCES

Anne Marie Sisk, SLP at ULM: 318-805-2843

Ryan McDonald, regional rehab director for Health Pro Heritage: 318-789-4759

Kelly Booker, SLP department supervisor at Siskin Hospital in Chattanooga, TN: 423-290-1282